FROM OUR MEMBERS:

The following is a QUERY from Judy BAIRD.

VANDENBROECK-SMITH-COPPENS
 Rochus VandenBroeck b. near Brussels, Belg.
 9 Jan 1819, s/o Peter and Mary TRACEY
 VANDENBROECK, Came to U.S. in 1845, m. in U.S.
 Sophia (SMITH? COPPENS?) also from Belgium.
 Lived at Pontiac & Grosse Pointe MI, before settling in Kent Co., MI in 1851. Any informations appreciated.
 Judy BAIRD, 13738 3 Mile Rd. Lowell, MI 49331.
 Along with her query Judy sent a funeral card which tells a little bit more about Rochus VANDENBROECK who left Belgium February 9th 1844, arriving in N.Y. May 1st; Sophia Smith who later became his bride arrived a few days later having spent 62 days on the voyage. " He came directly to 1846 moved to Pontiac where he resided until 1851 when he moved to Kent Co. settling on 40 acres of land in the township of Bowne, at that time an almost unbroken wilderness, built a shanty and the following winter and summer chopped and cleared 10 acres, putting it into wheat which he harvested the following year. At that time threshing machines were scarce and there was no road to him so he built a clay floor and threshed part of his wheat, about 20 bu., with a flail, but in the spring he cleared a road five miles for a Mr. Johnson to come with a machine and finish his threshing, the 10 acres yielding 355 bu., which he sold for $ 1.50 per bu. In the spring of 1860 he traded farms with Ira Gardner and moved to Vergennes where he lived until his death". The article goes on saying that his wife died in 1870 leaving him with 9 children, that he never remarried, that he worked hard and provided well for his family. In 1883 he divided his land giving his 5 sons farms averaging 100 acres each, to his four daughters he gave $ 1,500 each. In 1883 he went back to Belgium to visit his 2 sisters and numerous friends, and after his return lived with his daughter until his death in 1893. In his will he left between $ 13-14,000 to be divided between his 9 children.

The following is a query from Sandra DOBBIE pertaining to the name VAN MALDER

" I would like to hear from anyone doing research on this name anywhere in North America.
 I am looking for the parents of Peter Alexander VAN MALDER, born 29 June 1821, Halifax, Nova Scotia. He married Eleanor HARVEY, 13 Feb 1845, Liverpool, Nova Scotia. Eleanor was born 17 May 1819, Halifax, daughter of James HARVEY and Mary FLEMMING, both born Halifax, married Halifax 29 Sept 1811. James' trade was shipwright. Peter and Eleanor's children were: Charles William, born 20 Jan 1846, died 2 Feb 1846, Halifax.
 Thomas, born 5 Oct 1848, married Sophia, living Rochester, N.Y. 1906
 Eleanor, born 9 Nov 1852, Toronto, C.W. died 5 Oct 1854, Toronto.
 James, born 26 Sept 1856, Toronto, married Sarah May BOURKE, 25 Dec 1884, Toronto, died 6 May 1926, Toronto.
 Joseph, born 17 July 1858 Toronto, married Matilda MAYBERRY, died 19 July 1938, Lockport, N.Y.
 Peter was a shoemaker, James and Joseph worked as shoemakers and later as merchants. Eleanor HARVEY's family were Anglican. Peter was an Oddfellow. James was an Orangeman. I have so far found no record of Peter's birth in Halifax. Did his parents come from New York? England? Belgium? All letters will be answered! Reply, please, to: Sandra DOBBIE, 15 Ballymena Court, Don Mills, Ontario, M3C 2B8 CANADA.

So far, Sandra has never found VAN MALDERS listed in the phone books of any major North American city. There are 2 in Toronto. There is a full column of VAN MALDERS in the Brussels phone book and a few in Ninove. None were found among the New York Loyalists, nor in the 1800, 1810, 1820 N.Y. censuses.

Rene BALAND was told by Dr. Charles BALANT, a Belgian emigrant residing in Malvern, Pa., that a BALANT was listed in the 1970 Philadelphia, Pa. telephone book, however by 1982, this Philadelphian wasn't listed anymore. In the 1977 Pittsburgh telephone book, we found 3 BALANT and 2 BALLANT, whom Rene Baland will be contacting in hope that these American BALANT/BALLANT are related to him. (Pittsburgh area was heavily settled with people

Can you check your telephone books for other BALANT/BALAND/BALLANT that might be living in your area? It will be most appreciated by Rene BALANT, rue du Gazometre 14, Braine-le-Comte, Belgium

We don't know much (yet) about Arnold PRENEEL, except that he very kindly offered his help to our members, especially those with Flemish ancestry. Arnold PRENEEL, Predikherenberg 23, 3009 Winksele-Herent, Belgium

Bea NEERING would like you to know that she is willing to help anyone in Bay Co. in researching birth, marriage or death records; certified copies are $ 5.00 - xerox copies are 25¢ so far. Bea has found the Declaration of Intent to become a citizen of the U.S. of Francis DE SPEGHEL, he is the brother of Leander SPIEGEL, ancestor of the Neerings. The Declaration of Intent dated 19 Sept. 1868 in Bay City, doesn't give any details about the place of origin of Francis DE SPEGHEL, but it seems that he might be the "Francois Despegel" listed in the Antwerp Passenger list as coming from Klerken. Only time will tell. Bea NEERING, 2113 Midland Road, Bay City, Michigan 48706

The Peninsula Belgian American Club and Austin ALLARD are always on the go! May 4-9, 1982, will find them at the 1982 World's Fair in Knoxville, Tennessee, and the month of September will find them in Belgium for 2 weeks - Rome and Normandy are also on the tour... Austin ALLARD, Rt. 2, Luxemburg, WI. 54217

Congratulations to Julie HENDRICKS who is now the new Vice-President of the EASTERN WASHINGTON GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, she is also active in the D.A.R. and daughters of 1812 chapters. Her next big project is a trip to Salt Lake City in early May 1982, she was there last year too and had a wonderful time there searching at the L.D.S. Library. Unfortunately, she has had no luck so far in locating the Belgian origin of her HENDRICKS/BONGARTS ancestors; she is still trying to track down possible cousins: REUTER of Plentywoods, Montana ca. 1945; and FELTHANSEN of Rapid City, S.D. ca. 1945. She would like to know if any of our members have any MEYER/MYER families from Belgium? She edits/publishes the MEYER MIRROR surname newsletter and occasionally finds some readers who have Belgian "roots". Julie HENDRICKS, W. 628 Augusta 1, Spokane, Washington, 99205

We are pleased to report that the KIRKPATRICKS are still doing extremely well with their genealogical research in Nevele and Wingene. Robert and Margaret KIRKPATRICK, 6920 Portland Ave. So., Richfield, MN. 55423

Earl TENPOUND informed us that the Black Hawk College has a Belgian Collection housed in the Special Collections Room of the Learning Resources Center on the Moline Campus; the collection consists of books, paintings, newspapers, photographs, and a rubbing. Miss Morrissey, former special services director of the Learning Resources center, was mainly responsible for the collection's existence, she thinks that "this library is the only Belgian culture historical collection in North America that we know of". Earl TENPOUND, 3104-13th St. Archer Drive, East Moline, Ill 61244

Dorothy LUTOMSKI has received a 1683 marriage record of Pierre HENNULJ and Marie FIBARD, and a 1664 baptismal record of Nicolas MAURCOT, both of St. Denis and both BINON maternal lines. Dorothy LUTOMSKI, 421 S. Michigan St. De Pere, Wisconsin 54115

Barbara Conway VanDePete is still looking for Peter Van de Putte; so far she has read over 22 counties of the 1870 Illinois Census. The Kansas State Historical Society was able to find for her obituaries in papers other than the ones she had, she found that Pieder VanDePutte was born in Belgium on 2 September 1844, that his father had died around 1853 and his mother around 1864. He emigrated around 1865, he was married in Illinois where they lived for about 9 years, Peter Van de Putte and family moved to Kansas in 1879. Barbara Conway VANDEPETE, Star Route 36, Box 64A Havre, Montana 59501

Maxine Wood's Belgian ancestors came to America from Sweden where the ancestors of her great grandfather "Jean Jaques" a blacksmith, had settled previously. Jean Jaques was a "Walloon" and he or his father had changed their last name to "BERGSTROM". Maxine WOOD, 1466 Budd, Kankakee, Ill. 60901

Josephine Eshelman called to our attention that the "La Renaissance du Livre" in Brussels has published "Communes de Belgique" a 4 vols. historical and geographical dictionary of all the Belgian communities. The four volumes cost 11.660 BF. Josephine sent us an article found in "Encyclopedia Canadiana" Vol. 1, about Belgian emigration to Canada. It seems that the first Belgian to emigrate to Canada was a wig-maker named TISON, who came from Bainaut and settled in Montreal in 1760. Another early Belgian newcomer was Ferdinand van BRUYSSSEL (1856-1935) first Belgian consul general in Canada. Colonel CHABALLE (1876-1952) came to Canada in 1904. As a volunteer in the Canadian Army during the First World War, he displayed outstanding gallantry on the battlefield and was decorated by the British, French, and Belgian governments. According to the 1951 census, there are 35,148 persons of Belgian origin living in Canada. There are many Flemish tobacco growers in the Southern part of Ontario province. The population in the Manitoba villages of Bruxelles, St. Alphonse and Swan Lake are largely Belgian.

In Quebec, Richelieu Valley, a colony of Belgians (Flemish-Walloon) dairymen have prospered. In Ungava the development of mineral resources has attracted many Belgian miners formerly employed in Nova Scotia. The article also mentions the "Gazette van Detroit" as serving as a source of information for both the American and Canadian Flemish communities. Josephine ESHELMAN 2870 Duane Dr., Meridian, Id. 83642

Dorothy Lee received the birth record of her ancestor Anne Jos. WATERLOO who was born in Melin, BT 10 May 1819. Dorothy's trip to Wisconsin was very fruitful; she talked with Mary Ann Defnet, met Pearl Delwiche Hruska, obtained old pictures from relatives, got naturalization records for both grandfathers, sent for Eugene Delwiche's military records, she feels that the University of Wisconsin - Green Bay Library was very helpful. Dorothy LEE, 5 West Lake Court, Antioch, Ca. 94509

Joan SIEGERT is still doing very well with her research in the Ronse region of East Flanders, she uses the vital and parish records on microfilms.

Joan E. SIEGERT, 709 Colgate Circle, Garland, Tx 75042

Lois DEMEUSE received the death record of Antoine DEMEUSE who died March 4, 1820 in Sart-les-Walhain, BT; reporting his death was Jean Noel LINGELE and Nicolas Joseph CALFISSE; Antoine DEMEUSE's widow remarried on Jan. 31, 1821 in Walhain St. Paul to Jean Baptiste LECOCQ who was the son of Jean Jacques and Marie Anne GENIN. Marie Josephe DELHANDE (Antoine DEMEUSE's widow) was the daughter of Jacques Thomas DELHANDE and of Marie Anne GRUELLE. From Thorembais-St. Trond Lois received the baptismal record of Marie Therese DELLOYE (27 July 1781) daughter of Jean Francois DELLOYE and Jeanne Joseph JONET; the godparents were Jean Joseph and Marie Therese DELLOYE. Lois DEMEUSE, Box 50, Fish Creek, Wisconsin 54212

Peggy WENTE is most happy with her research, she says: "In October, my husband and I took my mother to Green Bay for a week to visit my father's people and to do some real searching. We met with Mary Ann Defnet (who turned out to be the daughter of one of my father's closest friend - Henry Lurquin). We spent a day visiting cemeteries and another at the Research Center at UWGB..... Through the cemetery lists at Brown County Library, Mary Ann found the burial spots of most my people. While visiting relatives we were introduced to a DELVEAUX widow who is living on the farm where my great grandmother, Octavia DELVEAUX is buried. She showed us the place - it is unmarked but she knew about it ! I could have spent many more days there. They are such wonderful people and so interested in the old families. Because of marrying back and forth in families, I think this is why some of my elderly relatives got names mixed-up. Three DELVEAUX families had Constant and Celestin, Celestina, Joseph, Josephine Ann Joseph etc. it can be pretty confusing til you start sorting it out on family sheets". Peggy is pleased that the LDS library in Rochester is now better organized in their new building, she found on the IGI (better known as microfiche) Constant DELVEAUX, his father is listed as Ferdinand Constant DELVEAUX and his mother as Marie Francoise SOQUETTE/SOQUET; could the name SOQUETTE have been changed to "SACOTTE" in this country ? she asks. She is still searching for her EVRARD family, so far she has found 3 Jean Baptiste EVRARD:

- 1) Jean Baptiste EVRARD 1840-1930 who married Jos. PATRIS.
- 2) Jean Baptiste EVRARD 1840-1904 (her great grandfather who married Sylvia LEALIOU.
- 3) Jean Baptiste EVRARD 1882-1953 (her grandmother's brother) who married Jos. DELVEAUX, and ...Anna.. Margaret DANDOIS WENTE, 1426 9th Ave. NW, Rochester, Minnesota 55901

YOUR LDS GENEALOGICAL LIBRARY SHOULD HAVE RECEIVED THE 1981 IGI ("microfiche"), please check it you might be in for a pleasant surprise !

Two years ago, it was Gail BICE's good fortune to follow a lead given to her by Pierre Inghels and to write to Georges GAILLARD of Herbeumont, LX, about her GAILLARD ancestors. Georges Gaillard promised her to find some informations about her ancestors, and being a gentleman of his word sent her recently, a pedigree chart taking her GAILLARD ancestry back to a Gilles GAILLARD born around 1640 and married in 1668 to Jeanne LECOMPAGNON in Herbeumont. Georges GAILLARD's 3GG father and mother (Gilles GAILLARD and Marie DUPONT x 1750) are Gail BICE 4GG father and mother. Gail BICE 3646 Roslyn St., Riverside, Ca. 92504

Definitely, Graig TRUAX has a way with words, as demonstrated by his "Truax and Related Families in Europe and America 1585-1982" that he graciously sent us. Facts, anecdotes interlaced with humorous remarks make this genealogy interesting reading not only for the Truax family members but also for those interested in the human history of the settling of the U.S., mainly New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania Kentucky and Indiana where the Truaxes settled. We asked and received permission to quote from this manuscript and have selected the poem by John McCrae "IN FLANDERS FIELDS" and the remarks that Graig made about World War I.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS, by John McCrae (1872-1918)

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place;
and in the sky the larks, still bravely singing, fly scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead, Short days ago
We lived, fell down, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
in Flanders Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from fallen hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us to die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
in Flanders Fields.

"This is included because a pair of ninth-generation American descendants of immigrant Phillipe DU TRIEUX were returned to the ancient land of their family to fight in World War I. There were Edward Combs TRUAX (b.1896) and Joseph Johnson TRUAX (b.1897). Neither had any notion that they were "back home". Joseph was badly hurt, with gas and shrapnel, as a member of the Rainbow Division. Sgt. Edward Combs learned the war was over, as he recalled, "when a Frenchman came galloping down the road on a skinny horse yelling at us". Having long lost the French language, Edward Combs had no notion that the Frenchman was shouting: "Stop fighting. ... the war is over."

The land of Flanders is marked by the graves of men of many backgrounds and Nations who fell in war at this Heartland of Europe ."

Graig TRUAX, Box 230, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa. 17120

Oops ! almost forgot something important, Graig is planning to take the Truax Family Organization to Europe in about 2 years and would like some suggestions on reasonably priced places to stay and where to find guides in the various cities that they will be visiting. The group will arrive in the Netherlands, proceed from there to Belgium and then to France. So, if you have experience with planning trips abroad, please contact Graig Truax.

In the book "L'Expansion Wallonne Hors d'Europe" by Joseph Delmelle, there is a reference to Jesse DE FOREST who was born in Avesnes (at that time part of Hainaut) and whose ancestors came from Mons region, Belgium.

Ruth Wagner SCHIELTZ will probably end-up being related to everyone with ancestors from the Province of Luxemburg, already she is related to Martha THEIS; her husband's grandmother was born in the village of Gueliff, (she was a HUBERTI other names found in the Versailles, Ohio region were Niderkorn, Coffina, Baltis, Lommel etc...

Ruth Wagner SCHIELTZ, 11820 Reed Rd. Versailles, Ohio 45380

Since we are on the subject of Luxemburg, the Sept. 1977 Eastern Washington Genealogical Society Bulletin had published a list of Province of Luxemburg localities, giving the official names and the local dialect names of places, here they are:

This list had been provided by Omer Raveau of Attert, LX, Belgium. Please note that in working with old record you may find references to: Wolkringen (Wolkrange); Martelingen (Martelange); it seems that the ending in ange can be readily translated in ingen and vice-versa.

Also in "Lucius Families U.S.A." by Ophelia Richardson Wade, 1971, we find children of the Lucius family saying that they came from "Saumpong", while others said that they came "Sass", as you can easily guess they were all talking about the same place "Sampont" a village of Hachy..... Saumpong was the (about) French pronunciation and Sass, the Luxemburgese name for Sampont.

Pierre Inghels is searching for a Belgian family by the name of LUTZ who emigrated to the U.S from Flanders during the last century. Please contact Pierre Inghels, Fruitdale Rt. 3 Box 3161 LaGrande, Oregon 97850

MR. L. GORISSEN, one of the directors of the VLAAMSE VERENIGING VOOR FAMILIEKUNDE wrote to tell us that his organization had already received inquiries from our members, and that they would be most happy to help in anyway they could. Mr. Gorissen knows about helping people, he and other members of the staff have answered more or less, 4,500 letters of inquiries within last year!

The VLAAMSE VERENIGING VOOR FAMILIEKUNDE is interested in receiving the pedigree charts of our members, regardless of which area of Belgium your ancestors came from, so please, (pretty please, with sugar on it!) can you send your pedigree charts to:

Mr. L. Gorissen, V.V.F., Wolstraat 39, B.2000, Antwerpen, Belgium

They would also appreciate any printed genealogies and genealogical publications that you can spare.

Charles and Claudine BELVA sent a copy of an article published Aug. 23, 1974 in the Belgian newspaper "Vers l'Avenir", listing the names of the Wisconsinites planning to visit Belgium that year. The article gives some informations about the visitors' ancestors. It says:

Mrs. Josephine Legreve Wauetelet thinks that her grandfather Peter Reince/Rance and her great-grandfather Alexandre Reince came from Perwez region. Her mother Lucy Reince, daughter of Peter married Frank Legrave (or Legreve).

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Johnson stated that their maternal and paternal grandparents were Clara La Luzerne, Aralea Piette, Catherine Delwiche and Willaim La Luzerne. There is also 2 grand-uncles - John and Frank Delwiche - one grandaunt, Josephine Delwiche who married Joseph Charles. Another letter tells of Marie Antoinette Degrave, wife of Jean-Pierre Wery, she was born in Tourinnes-la-Grosse in 1798, Charles Wery their son was born there in 1836, he married Marie Adolphe Evrard born in 1844, the letter also mentionned Laura Wery wife of Leo de Baker, George de Baker who married Marie Gilliard daughter of William Gilliard and Victoria Vandervest. The same family are still looking in the Tourinnes-la-Grosse region for Marie Joseph Malcorps, wife of Alexandre Evrard, for Adolphe Evrard, daughter of Alexandre Evrard who married for the second time to Josephine Vandervest.

Joe and Goldie Derenne found Celia Nanut born in Belgium 6 December 1843 and her husband Edouard Derenne born in Belgium 4 July 1842. One daughter is born in Daussoulx on 5 December 1868. Two sisters: Virgil Potier Bosman and Myrtle Potier Alberts said that their maternal grandmother, Eugenie Legot or Ligot was born in Marsin, most likely they meant Marchin. Their maternal grandfather was Jean Baptiste Nellis; their paternal grandparents were Genevieve Early or Hearly and Ferdinand Potier, who perhaps was born in Namur.

Ivan Draize says that his paternal grandparents + Auguste Draize or Deraize born in 1856 in Templou and Celina Renard (from St. Denis?); his maternal grandparents were Alex Bodart and Sarah Dechamps. According to Margaret Lampereur Draize, her paternal grandparents were Nestor Lampereur or Lempereur born 1853 in Thorembais-les-Beguines and Eugenie Descamps. Her maternal grandparents were Martin Baudhuin from Meux, and Theresa Pensis from Tourinnes-la-Grosse. Harris Dhuey says that he is a descendant of Jean Dhuey (perhaps spelled Dewey or Duwez) born in Belgium in 1815 and a knives-maker, his wife was Marie Francoise Bofue born in Liege in the village of "Kernache". (Kemexhe??)

We wish to thank all of you for your support, good wishes and those marvelous articles that you send in, one of them about Belgians in MI sent to us by Luana Bauer will be published in our next issue of Belgian Laces. Please check the "microfiches" which is a list of names sent to the Temple by members of the Church (LDS)-the information found is as accurate as the person who submitted it !! But you get surprises, i.e. you will find some "DEGREMAUX" in Norfolk Co., England!!

We received a letter from Mr. Marcel HUSTING, 26, Neufchâtel, B1060 Bruxelles, Belgium, requesting some genealogical informations regarding Marie JUNEAU who had married Jean-Pierre HUSTING a Belgian emigrant to Wisconsin, they were the parents of Paul Oscar HUSTING, a senator, born in Fond-du-Lac 25 April 1866. Our correspondent was also interested in receiving some informations on "La Farinee" an Indian Chief, related to Marie JUNEAU. We called on Mary Ann Defnet for help and ever so kindly, she did the requested research on the JUNEAU family, who is of French-Canadian descent and quite famous. She wasn't able to find a relationship to "La Farinee", but but did find that there is a strong possibility that one of Marie Juneau's maternal ancestor was "AHKENEPOWEH" an Indian Chief. We asked The State Historical Society of Wisconsin (816 State St., Madison, WI. 53706) do give us some details about LA FARINEE and AHKENEPOWEH. We wish to thank Mary Ann Defnet for being always so helpful to other fellow researchers.

Mary Ann DEFNET was in need of someone to do research for her in the Archives Center in Brussels, Belgium, and it just happened that we received a letter from Mrs. HARLEPIN-SMEESTERS, 109, Avenue General Medecin Derache, 1050 Bruxelles, Belgium, who was in need of someone who could do intensive research on the SMEESTERS of Green Bay, Wisconsin - we are pleased to report that Mary Ann will be doing some research for Mrs. Harlepin-Smeesters, and Mrs. Harlepin-Smeesters will be doing some research for Mary Ann Defnet. Good luck to both of them. Mary Ann Defnet is currently taking some French lessons to help with her pronunciation, otherwise she understands French quite well. Mary Ann DEFNET 832 South Quincy St., Green Bay, WI. 54301

Mrs. Jeanne PREUX-QUIN, 25 rue du Parc, 7270 Dour, Belgium was told by the Genealogical Library (LDS), 5 Rond Point de l'Alliance, 78000 Versailles, France, that Salt Lake had 2 microfilms of 2 QUIN family genealogies. Mrs. Preux would like to know if any QUIN from Belgium ever emigrated to the U.S. We will be checking one of the QUIN microfilms for her. In 1624 many people originate from Hainaut Province came to America via The Netherlands, they settled N.Y. alongside the Dutch; many years later (around 1880) again many people from the Hainaut Province emigrated to America, mostly to Pennsylvania? this latter emigration involved many coal miner and glass maker families. Perhaps there was some QUIN families among one of these emigrations. Mrs. Preux is now a member of TBR

Mr. Armand VANWELDE, 3 rue J.B. Denys, 1070 Brussels, Belgium, is researching the name WELDE/WELDEN and other spellings and would like to know if we have members or are acquainted with people by that name. Mr. VanWelde sent us an interesting manuscript about the surname WELDEN, it includes not only Mr. VanWelde's genealogy going back to Petrus Van Welde who married Cornelia Leemans in 1687 in Kerkom, but also numerous references to the other Welde/VanWelde/deWelde/Welden/Velde families of Belgium and Europe and the U.S. and Canada.

Mr. Andre GYRE, 42, rue de Beauvechain, 5991 Tourinnes-la-Grosse, Belgium, found thru a 1850 tax roll that Martin Gyre, a brother of one of his direct ancestors had emigrated to the U.S. from which he was still paying taxes on land he owned in Belgium. Martin Gyre (sometime the name is also spelled Gire) was born in Nethen on 7 July 1810 and had emigrated to the U.S. before 1850, he was married but the name of his spouse is not known; Mr. Gyre would like to know if Martin Gyre had any descendants and where in the U.S. did he emigrated to. Could you, if your library has printed copies of the 1850 census of your state check it for a Martin Gyre - there is a strong possibility that the spelling of the name was changed - the name would sound like "Geer/Jeer" and might be spelled that way too. Mary Ann informed us that there are many "Geyer" in Wisconsin (where many people from Nethen and surrounding towns settled) she thinks that they are German of origin, but will find out for sure.

Mr. Yves HELLEBAUT, 21, Place Flagey B.P.6, Bruxelles, Belgium, has a grandaunt who emigrated to the U.S. in 1890 with her daughter;

she was Elisa Amelie HAECK RICCI born in Schaarbeek on 25 February 1856, she had married Archangelo RICCI in 1877 (St. Josse-ten-Noode) - she left, according to the St. Gilles population registers, on the 29 April 1890 taking her daughter Gabrielle RICCI along but leaving her husband behind. She died in Philadelphia on 18 Oct. 1903. Mr. Hellebaut's question is this: Did her daughter Gabrielle married and did she leave any descendant? So far we asked the University of Pennsylvania-Philadelphia to check the obituaries for that time-period in their newspaper collection. They did check the only collection that was available to them, but were unable to find any obituary for Elisa HAECK RICCI, but did refer us to another library which has an extensive newspaper collection. First, we will be checking the Philadelphia Vital Records before writing to the Free Library of Philadelphia, to make sure that we have the right death date and place. If however the obituary (if found) doesn't mention the married name of her daughter (if indeed she ever married) what do you think could be done to find out what happened to the daughter?

Why so many letters from Belgium you may ask? the following, from Mr. Michael C. DUDNEY, 127 rue Puits-en-Sock, 4020 Liege, Belgium, will answer that.... I saw an article in the January 1982 (# 217 -No.1/1982) issue of L'Intermédiaire des Genealogistes published in Brussels by the S.C.G.D. (Service de Centralisation des Etudes Généalogiques et Démographiques de Belgique) concerning The Belgian Researchers and the quarterly "Belgian Laces", written by J. DETRO, a member of the S.C.G.D. who has corresponded with you. The article is very interesting, encouraging Belgians with interest in the U.S.A. to become members of The Belgian Researchers.....Mr. Dudney goes on saying that his father is American and his mother Belgian-born and that he is residing in Belgium permanently, he is familiar with Belgian research and also with problems (genealogically speaking) of Belgians in the U.S. especially helping American Belgians to tie up with the "Old World" Mr. Dudney also offers his help to anyone who might need it. How nice!

We received an inquiry from Mr. Richard LAMINE, 3480 Greenbriar Ct., La Crosse, Wisc. 54601, who knows that his great-great-grandparents left the village of Melin, BT on March 28, 1856. They were Jean-Baptiste LAMINE and his wife Josephine BARETTE and their 4 children, they were accompanied by Barbe BARETTE and the ROFISO widow. Mr. Lamine would like to know when they departed Belgium for the U.S.. what was the name of the ship and where was the port of entry, how many people were on the ship and if it's possible to get a copy of the manifest. If when checking passenger lists you find some informations about the above mentioned people, please contact Mr. Lamine or us.

Mr. Joseph WEYN informs us that he was born in Antwerp and that he is a member of the GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY OF FLEMISH AMERICANS. The names that he is researching are: WEYN, VERBEEK, HENS, FRANCKE VANRAEMDONCK, MEERSMAN, STEPHANIE and DILLEN. Mr. Joseph WEYN, 879 S.Hospital Rd. R.4 Union Lake, Mic. 48085

Steven DUMEY's great-grandparents Jean-Henri DUMEY and Marie-Anne DOHOGNE emigrated to America between 1845-1848 from Francorchamps, LG. Steven would like to know the exact date of their arrival to the U.S., the name of the ship. There were 2 Dohogne and 2 Legrand families that emigrated also from Francorchamps. They settled first in Ohio for a few years and then moved on to Scott Co. Missouri near New Hamburg a village founded by German immigrants in the 1840's. Steve DumeY, 115 Theresa Lane, Bourbonn Ill. 60914

Harold LEFEVRE, 16408 Deer Lake Rd. Derwood, Md, 20855 has ancestors that came from Lebelins and Charleroi, HT around 1824-1825. They were

"The emigration of remarkably skilled people gave a new impulse to our industry, very modest at that time. Their contributions have left their marks on our economy and in the history of our civilization".
(Gustavus VI, King of Sweden, May 11, 1964, Stockholm)

In his address, the King of Sweden was referring to the WALLOON EMIGRATION TO SWEDEN DURING THE 17th CENTURY.

Toward the end of the 16th c., the Louis DE GEER family from Gaillardmont, LG, had because of their religious beliefs, emigrated like so many to the Netherlands. A son, also named Louis (married 1612, in Dordrecht/Neth. Adrienne GERARD from Liege) gave an extraordinary expansion to his father's business.
It was around 1612-1615 that he started exporting canons to Sweden where he met the DE BESCHE/DE BECHE brothers who were living there and who were involved in the steel industry. Louis de Geer supplied them with calamine. This was the start of Louis de Geer's business transactions with Sweden. In April 1615, he exported 500 canons, canonballs and nitre to that country. By June of the same year, Louis equipped at his own expenses 200 soldiers whom he sent to the service of Gustavus II, King of Sweden. By 1619, Louis was lending money to the King and received copper ingots as payments.

Before long Louis who was now residing in Sweden, became the ammunition supplier to the Swedish Kingdom. He provided them with artillery equipment, and iron canonballs. He became an associate of the de Besche brothers and managed the Osterby mill, but by 1627 he is found as the director of all of Sweden weapon factories !!! (Dannemora, Finspong, Nykoping, Norrkoping, Godegard, Forsmarck, Torshälla, Flogford, Nacka, etc...) In 1630 he is the sole master of all these plants and is able to equipped an army of 35,000 and to supply weapons and ammunitions for 42,000 soldiers!

How was Louis de Geer able to accomplish such feats?
he had at his disposal a very able and industrious group of people, mainly highly qualified 5,000 emigrants and their families from the Namur, Walcourt, Liege and Franchimont regions! No doubts that Louis de Geer was instrumental in recruiting his fellow countrymen; did he recruit them in Belgium or had they too taken refuge in the Netherlands where they were recruited?

These informations taken from "L'Expansion Wallonne en Europe" by Joseph Delmelle, would be just about all that we could offer for now, if it hadn't been for Jacques Detro, 99 rue de Fétinne, 4020, Liege, Belgium, who sent the following list of surnames found in the "Bulletin de l'Institut Archeologique Liegeois" Vol. 12, 1874, Stanislas Borman.

These surnames were found in the parish registers of Oster-Lofsta, also including Akerby and Hillebois;
in the account registers of Osterby, Dannemora, Finspong mills; in the Carlskoga and Fernbo districts mines accounts; in the church of Lena registers for Wattholma mill.

(D) means Dannemora-Verken; (Etc.) means that these surnames are found in various places; (F) = Finspong;
(H) = Hidemora; (L) = Leufsta; (O) = Osterby;

List of "Walloon" surnames
PACHY, PERSONNE, PROVOST, REMNY, REVU, STEM, TIBON, TOBAK, WOUTERS.

There is in Sweden, an historical organization for people of Walloon descent, the Royal Swedish Embassy, 600 New Hampshire Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20037, sent us their address: SALLSKAPET VALLONATTLINGAR Tyskbagargatan 7
S114 43 Stockholm, Sweden

Here in the U.S., the Swedish American Genealogist is a quarterly journal devoted to Swedish American biography, genealogy and personal history.
Subscriptions $ 12.50 to be sent to:
Swedish American Genealogist, P.O. Box 2186, Winter Park, Florida 32790.
The Swedish Embassy has also a little booklet explaining how to trace your ancestors in Sweden.

To close this article about "Walloon" in Sweden, let me just say that if Blanche of Namur (b. 1315?) wife of Magnus Eriksson, king of Sweden, was well liked and is still remembered by the Swedes - 600 years later, it was the ruin of Astrid, Swedish Princess (1905-1936), to capture the hearts of the Belgians and of Leopold, their future king. Queen Astrid was the mother of Baudouin, King of Belgium; of Josephine-Charlotte, Grand-Duchess of Luxemburg; and of Albert, Prince of Liege. So loved was Astrid that even long after her untimely death, her picture still hung in many homes in Belgium.
